

Louis Paulhan Becomes Aerial Hero in England by Beating White for Big Fortune.

PAULHAN WINS BY STRATEGY

Frenchman Outwits His English Opponent and Takes Race and Big Prize.

FIRST MAN TO FLY FROM LONDON TO MANCHESTER

White Is a Good Loser, and Congratulates Victor for His Daring Flight.

MANCHESTER, Eng., April 28.—The first aerial derby for a prize offered by an Englishman has been won by a Frenchman, and handsomely.

Upon landing here, Louis Paulhan was given a tremendous ovation and unstinted praise for his remarkable feat. At the same time his less experienced, but no less plucky competitor, is being showered with congratulations over his splendid attempt and because he has shown himself a good loser. As soon as Graham White learned of Paulhan's success he called for three cheers for the victor. Paulhan, winner of the $50,000 prize for the first flight from London to Manchester, made within twenty-four hours and with not more than two stops, arrived here at 5:20 o'clock this morning, almost exactly twelve hours after he left London last evening.

Paulhan was benumbed with the cold and thoroughly exhausted when he reached here. A great crowd awaited him. Manchester first saw the French aviator a few minutes after 5 o'clock coming as steadily as a steamer on a smooth sea and leading directly for the field which he had chosen as landing place. Flying at a height of 400 feet, Paulhan came over a clump of trees, and then, bringing his biplane around with a beautiful curve, landed exactly in the center of the field. Paulhan did the last twenty-four miles in exactly twenty-four minutes, outdistancing the special train bearing his wife, Henry Farnham and other friends, which had accompanied him.

White Praises Paulhan. When at Polesworth, White was told of the Frenchman's success he mounted the top of an automobile and stood. "Ladies and gentlemen, the $50,000 prize has been won by Louis Paulhan, the finest aviator the world has ever seen. Compared with him I am only a novice. Three cheers for Paulhan!" The crowd gathered about the Englishman gave the cheers heartily, following him with a round of cheers for White. Speaking of the flight which he made, White said:

"I was completely turned around three times by the wind. I managed to get over the track of the railway at a start by aid of a great light, but over a good many miles about Rugby I saw no signal lights and there was considerable wind."

Following the example of the Frenchman who got away from London at four hours ahead of him yesterday, White was up long before daylight this morning and in the air at 5:20 o'clock, more than an hour before Paulhan started from Lichfield, fifty miles further north.

White passed Rugby last before daylight, flying at a great height and with terrific speed in an effort to make up the distance which he had lost by his late start yesterday. He kept up his speed, following the railway line, over Nuneaton and Atherstone, and when he was compelled to descend at Polesworth he was only ten miles from Lichfield, from which Paulhan had started but a moment before.

Paulhan, upon ascending at Lichfield at 1:30 o'clock this morning, was hurried on by the news that White already was in the air and approaching Lichfield. Paulhan encountered a sharp southwest wind, which, while it made up the journey it made it almost impossible for him to keep a firm grasp on the levers, helped him on his way.

An immense crowd was gathered at the field where the machine was stored over night and along the roads leading northward.

As he flew gracefully over them the French aviator waved his hand and determined his course by mounting to a good height, just missing a tall elm tree in the ascent. Then he called directly for

SALT LAKE TEAM TO RAISE MONEY

Will "Tag" Baseball Fans With Hopes of Catching Fifteen Hundred "Wheels."

The Salt Lake baseball management will commence a campaign today to raise funds for the support of the team in the Utah league the present season. Tags have been printed, and it is the purpose of the players and many of the most enthusiastic supporters of the game to tag every baseball fan in the city. In this way, it is thought that the team can raise the necessary $1500 or $2000 in one or two days.

AUTOMOBILE "SCORCHER" STOPS AT FARMINGTON

Bill Davis made a $10 wager Thursday that he would drive his automobile from Salt Lake to Ogden in 1:25. He left here at 4:37 p. m. and, after passing out of sight of the city policemen, opened up the brakes and the car "burned up" the dust between here and Farmington. A large cloud of dust followed the machine and when within a few miles of Farmington, many of the farmers mistook the dust cloud for a cyclone and prepared to get out of its way. The town sheriff was more reserved and, having seen an automobile cloud once before, stationed himself in the middle of the road. Davis finally came along and was told to halt, which he did. The stop not only cost Davis the $10 bet, but he was also asked to deposit a small amount with the sheriff to help out the Farmington police expense fund. Up to a late hour last night Davis had not reached Ogden.

RICKARD ASKS TO HAVE JUDGMENT SET ASIDE

NEW YORK, April 28.—Tex Rickard, promoter of the Jeffries-Johnson fight, has filed a motion, through his attorneys here, to have Supreme Court Justice Whitely set aside the judgment of $2250 obtained by Dr. Cornelius G. Coakley. The judgment was for services rendered Rickard's little girl two years ago.

"This is a case where a reputable citizen of New York is trying to collect a judgment from an elusive character," said Dr. Coakley's counsel in opposing the motion. Recently Timothy D. Sullivan, who holds $40,000 of the Jeffries-Johnson fight stakes, gave his personal check for Dr. Coakley's bill plus interest and costs as security for the debt.

Stafford, the aeroplane swaying perilously in the wind. Paulhan followed the railway line all the way to Manchester, usually at a height of 500 feet, but descending to 200 feet when passing over towns, and with terrific speed in an effort to make up the distance which he had lost by his late start yesterday. He kept up his speed, following the railway line, over Nuneaton and Atherstone, and when he was compelled to descend at Polesworth he was only ten miles from Lichfield, from which Paulhan had started but a moment before.

FEATHERS BOX A DRAW

EUGENE "PEANUTS" SINCLAIR.

Social to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 28.—Before one of the largest crowds ever gathered here to witness a boxing contest, "Peanuts" Sinclair and Eugene Erlenborn boxed twenty rounds to a draw at the New Ogden theatre tonight. Both boys could scarcely stand up during the last three rounds of the fight, and a lucky blow properly placed would have landed a knockout for either. During the early stage of the fight Erlenborn had his opponent badly worried with repeated left jabs to the nose and face, which caused the blood to flow freely throughout the fight, covering both fighters and Dick Jones, the referee. Sinclair never lost his head in the entire twenty rounds, always forcing the fighting, and time and again knocking Erlenborn through the ropes. In the eighteenth round Sinclair, with a right uppercut, scored two clean knockdowns. In the next round Erlenborn duplicated this by knocking Sinclair back to the floor in rapid succession, with left jabs to the jaw. At the beginning of the eighteenth round

NO GAME WARDENS IN SIGHT TO CATCH JEFF

BEN LOMOND, Cal., April 28.—To recover from the slight operation on his back, in which a small eruption was lanced, Jeffries rested from training today. He spent the day fishing and returned to camp late in the afternoon with a string of eighty trout. Jeffries declared he slept soundly last night and has suffered no ill effects from the operation. Manager Berger will be on the side lines, as far as the training work of the camp is concerned, for the next week or more. Several days ago he strained a knee tendon and aggravated the injury by playing handball with Jeffries yesterday. Jeffries declares he would be hard at work again Monday.
